3. The serviceability of locomotives has improved, as appears from the mileage covered during October 1948. In view of an increase in traffic, however, it became necessary to draw on the reserve locomotives which had been set aside for the winter months; 18 locomotives were withdrawn from the engine park of the RBD Dresden and 13 from the RBD Erfurt.
4. According to plans, 1,425 engines should have been repaired between 1 July and 21 October; however, by the end of October only 862 locomotives had been repaired. Of this number, 147 were repaired during
